NOTES.

In the accompanying list, the books are all entered under their titles, with the name of the author, when known, immediately following, but not under the name of the author except in prescribed cases, when they will be found in another part of the catalogue.

Parentheses, when used in the title, enclose parts of it which are transposed ; when used in the name of the author, they enclose initials not generally used by the authors.

The books of reference are given only in a separate list in the catalogue, and under the name of the author only. —

The public documents are arranged under the names of the places to which they belong, and according to their subjects.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

FIRST. The library shall be open every day, except Sundays, legal holidays and Decoration Day, from three to half-past five o'clock, and from half-past six to nine o'clock.

SECOND. Residents of Hyde Park, over twelve years of age, may use the library upon signing a promise to obey its rules, and may take from it one book at a time, but must not loan it out of their respective households; and no family can have more than three volumes at the same time. Each applicant under sixteen years of age, must bring a certificate from his teacher or some other responsible person known to the Trustees, that he is worthy of trust.

THIRD. Every person entitled to take books from the library will receive a printed card bearing his name, and upon a slip accompanying this must write the shelf mark of the volume wanted. The presentation of such card and slip is the only mode of obtaining a book.

FOURTH. Books of recent purchase may be kept out one week, and no more. All other books may be kept out two weeks, and renewed for one week longer. On each book retained longer than the prescribed time, a fine of two cents a day, thereafter, will be incurred, and at the end of three weeks all books will be sent for at the borrower's cost, and, until they are either returned or replaced, and all charges paid, the borrower will forfeit the use of the Library. The Trustees may, by a notice affixed to a new book, require its return earlier than as above required, and no new book can be renewed or retaken by any member of the same household until after the lapse of one week. The Trustees shall decide when any book shall cease to be treated as a new book.

FIFTH. All injuries to books, beyond a reasonable wear, and all losses, shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Trustees. If a lost volume belongs to a set, and cannot otherwise be supplied, the whole set must be replaced by the loser, he being entitled to the broken set. Any one feeling aggrieved by the assessment of the Librarian for damages, may appeal to the Trustees.

SIXTH. All books must be returned for examination on or before the first Monday in January in each year, and none will be re-issued for at least one week thereafter; and for every book not returned at the time named, a fine of fifty cents will be levied, and the book sent for at the cost of the delinquent borrower.

SEVENTH. Any person entitled to the use of the Library, who desires the addition to it of any book, must give in writing to the Librarian the full title of such book, the name of its author, if known, and his own name. Should such book be added, it shall be reserved for such person three library days.

EIGHTH. Every book given to the Library shall be labeled with the name of the donor and the date of the presentation.

NINTH. Books of reference, and such other works of special value as may be designated by the Trustees, shall not be taken from the Library without special authority.

TENTH. Persons visiting the Library will be required to deport themselves quietly and with decorum, and to avoid all unnecessary conversation.

ELEVENTH. One copy of the Catalogue of the Library will be given to the head of each family in town, upon application to the Librarian, who will also have copies for sale at a price fixed by the Trustees.

TWELFTH. The Librarian shall have charge of the Library-rooms, and be responsible for the due care of all they contain. He shall keep them in order, and ventilate, warm and light them, as need requires. He shall cover and number the books, put upon each its label and stamp, shelve them in such order and prepare such catalogues, lists and forms as the Trustees may prescribe. He shall record the title and author of each book, and its accession number, and, if in a set, the number of volumes, the cost, date of reception, place and time of publication; and, if a donation, its estimated value, and the name of the donor, and shall return to him a written acknowledgement of thanks in behalf of the Trustees. No book shall be loaned until thus made ready for use. He shall record the name of every person taking books from the Library, the number of each book taken, the date of delivery, and date of return. He shall be present, in person or by a substitute approved by the Trustees, whenever the Library is open. He shall assess damages, and record and collect all dues to the Library, stating by whom incurred and when paid, and shall pay monthly to the Treasurer the money thus received. He shall report violations of the by-laws to the Trustees. He shall, every year, during the week following the first Monday in January, present to the Trustees a detailed report of the condition of the Library, its operations during the year, all additions to it by purchase and by gift, with the names of the donors, and any other information which the Trustees may require.

These duties of the Librarian are subject to such modifications as the Trustees may from time to time prescribe.

THIRTEENTH. The Board of Trustees shall exercise a general supervision of the Library, provide printed catalogues of its books, containing its rules, select and purchase books, choose and contract with a Librarian, and decide appeals from his decision. They shall receive all money accruing to the Library, pay its debts, and draw from the town treasury, all appropriations made by the town for its use, and shall in the annual town report present a detailed account of its operations during the year, its condition, with an account of all moneys received and expended by them. They shall have power to suspend persons from the privileges of the Library for flagrant violations of its rules. The Board shall meet on the second Tuesday of each month for the transaction of any business pertaining to the Library.

FOURTEENTH. These rules and regulations are subject to alteration, amendment, or revision, at the pleasure of the Board of Trustees.
